

DAMASCUS

KITCHEN HAND -POSITION DETAILS

WHAT WE'RE AFTER

We are looking for a Kitchen Hand for our restaurant who can help us continue to deliver fantastic, authentic flavours for our guests.

Your role is crucial to our service. You ensure our chefs have everything they need to create and serve their dishes, and FOH have space to drop dirty plates and cutlery, and a fresh supply throughout service.

You will also have the opportunity to support the kitchen team with our homemade bread prep and begin learning more about the kitchen environment. You will be responsible for your station and a pivotal member of the team who can keep up with the pace of service.

WHO WE ARE

We are a tight knit, owner-operator business specialising in high quality Syrian food in a fine dining setting. Our mission is to deliver exquisite flavours and impeccable service with a family atmosphere. We've been operating since 2017 when we started with a gazebo, and have rapidly gone from strength to strength, recently being recognised as a Cuisine Global Destination 2023/24 by the prestigious Cuisine Good Food Guide.

Our new restaurant on Tory St seats 55 covers per sitting, 90-130 total per night. We developed a great reputation during our time at Vogelmorn Bowling Club, so we welcome a lot of regulars as well as new visitors who've seen our social media or heard about us.

We're open Tuesday to Saturday for dinner 5pm - late.

We also open for Middle Eastern Brunch / Lunch on Saturday 11-2pm.

The restaurant is dynamic and proactive -we're not afraid to make changes, launch new menus and follow creative inspiration.

WHO YOU ARE

- A proactive human who thrives in fast paced environments and is looking to be part of a great team
- You've had at least 1 year of experience working in a similar position
- You're well presented, personable, interactive and confident
- You can work autonomously and in a team environment
- You are confident with food hygiene and handling contaminated items
- You're trustworthy and reliable - you can work the days we're open, public holidays and split shifts

- You are motivated to find ways to improve your work and grow your skills
- You have the right to work in NZ, and a valid NZ work visa if you're international.

WE OFFER

- A competitive salary ($24 - $25 per hour depending on experience)
- A part time/full time position
- Delicious staff meals when you're working
- Staff discount
- Training
- The space to grow and expand your skill set.

Follow us on social media @damascusnz to see what we do.

To apply, please email us your CV to info@damascusnz.com or pop in to chat in person.